

Assistant Professor of Community Health (Health & Physical Education Division)

Recruitment Number: F1113

Application Deadline: Review of applications begins immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

The Health & Physical Education Division seeks qualified applicants for a 9-month, tenure-track, Assistant Professor of Community Health. Summer session employment is possible if desired. The university strongly encourages applications from scholars of diverse backgrounds with a commitment to multicultural education and multidisciplinary collaboration.

The primary instructional assignment will be in one of the following areas: Epidemiology and/or Research Methods. In addition, the candidate will have the opportunity to teach other courses relevant to his/her expertise and the Community Health degree program. The individual hired for this position will teach in both the undergraduate and graduate programs, advise undergraduate students, participate in service activities, and demonstrate commitment to work with diverse populations. The candidate is expected to actively pursue professional development opportunities and engage in research and scholarly activities.

Qualifications: Earned Doctorate in Health or related field is required. Preference will be given to candidates with an established record of successful teaching, scholarly work, professional service, and C.H.E.S. certification. Candidates must possess a Ph.D., Ed.D. or Dr.P.H. degree at the time of employment.

Start Date: September 16, 2012

Contact Information: Questions regarding this position may be directed to Dr. Peggy Pedersen, Search Chair, at 503-838-8269 or pedersep@wou.edu.

For questions regarding the application process or to submit your application documents, please contact Human Resources at 503-838-8552 or employment@wou.edu.

Application Process

Please submit these required application materials:

- A WOU Faculty Application Form (available at www.wou.edu/facultyapp)
- Letter of application, including statement of teaching philosophy, scholarly efforts, and professional services activities
- Current curriculum vita
- Transcripts showing highest degree (unofficial)
- Three (3) letters of recommendation plus contact information for three (3) references

Submit Application Materials to:

F1113 Assistant Professor of Community Health
Western Oregon University
Human Resources Office
345 N. Monmouth Ave.
Monmouth, OR 97361

-OR- E-mail as an attachment to employment@wou.edu -OR- Fax to 503-838-8144.

Western Oregon University (WOU) is a mid-sized public comprehensive university located in the Monmouth-Independence area, the heart of Oregon's lush Willamette Valley. The university serves a large number of first-generation college students. WOU has received national recognition for its commitment and success in serving students. The campus is about 20 minutes from Salem, the state's capital, about 75 minutes from Portland, the state's cultural hub, and a short drive from the Oregon coast, mountains, and other scenic areas. The university is located in an increasingly diverse, bilingual, and rural area in the Willamette Valley. Our student body of about 5400 undergraduate and 800 graduate students enjoys the vibrant and close-knit intellectual community of a leading liberal arts college.

Western Oregon University is an equal opportunity employer committed to increasing the diversity of its workforce