

CECLC Art Contest 2018

The César E. Chávez Leadership Conference sponsors an annual Art and Poetry Contest. All students from the participating high schools may enter each contest with one entry. Winners will receive prizes, have their name published in the conference program and be acknowledged the day of the conference with a plaque. First place is $250, Second place is $200, Third place is $150, and Honorable Mention is $50.

The rules for the Art Contest are outlined below. All contest entries must follow contest rules and guidelines to be considered for the competition. This year's CECLC theme is "Believe, Act, Persevere".

There are two different types of Artwork that may be submitted:

1. Drawing: A pencil or ink drawing that depicts the theme of this conference or is related to Cesar E. Chavez .
2. Illustration: A colored illustration of the theme for this year's conference and of Cesar Chavez. This may be done in colored pencil, acrylics, oil pastels, watercolors or oil.

Requirements:

- The artwork submitted must be related to Cesar E. Chavez or his spirit, legacy, work, etc.
- All work submitted must be the artist's original work and created by the student's hand. Computer-generated work will not be accepted.
- All work must be mounted and ready for display. It must be mounted on a matt board or a display board.
- All work must not be smaller than 8" x 10" or larger than 11" x 14".
- Your artwork must have a title and be signed by the artist
- No inappropriate language, negative connotations, guns/weapons, etc.

All entries must be postmarked by December 15th, 2017

Submit your contest entry to Mr. Hector H. Hernandez. You can mail or deliver. DO NOT mail entries to the CECLC Address. Only entries received at the address below will be considered.
