

UNIVERSITY of NORTHERN COLORADO

Mid-America Regional Interpreter Education Center

Institute for Legal Interpreting

April 11-14, 2012 - Westin Hotel, Westminster, CO

Conference for Legal Interpreters

Key notes speakers, panelists and presenters will discuss topics relating to:

- ◆ The intersection between legal and healthcare interpreting;
- ◆ The use of video remote interpreting in the court system;
- ◆ Building collaboration between courts and practitioners; and
- ◆ Contemporary research and implications for interpreting practice.

The Institute for Legal Interpreting will consist of:

- ◆ Plenary sessions and panel discussion for the conference as a whole; and
- ◆ Four rotating workshops.

This conference is geared to interpreters working within the legal setting. Two of the four rotating workshop tracks are geared to:

- ◆ General skill development (also suitable for individuals preparing for the SC:L exam); and
- ◆ Specialized training for Deaf interpreters.

Conference presenters include:

- ◆ Dr. Jemina Napier, Australia
- ◆ Ms. Carla Mathers, Esq.
- ◆ Roger Williams
- ◆ And more!

Earn 1.9 RID Legal CEUs

(RID CEUS are currently pending)

Early Bird Registration = $400

(runs through February 1, 2012)

No on-site registration accepted

Registration fee includes reception on Wednesday evening and lunch on Thursday-Saturday as well as electronic copies of conference materials.

For more information visit the MARIE Sponsored Training Event page at www.unco.edu/marie

Westin Hotel in Westminster, Colorado

Conference rate is $129.00 per night plus taxes

Hosted by Mid-America Regional Interpreter Education Center

in cooperation with UNC-DO IT Center, CATIE Center & RID Legal Interpreter Member Section (LIMS)

RSA MID-AMERICA
REGIONAL INTERPRETER EDUCATION CENTER