Careers in Aging Week
April 7-10, 2014
at Western Oregon University

Schedule of events

Monday, April 7
• Focus on Careers, 1 to 2 p.m., Columbia Room, Werner University Center
  Two presentations focusing on two “hot” careers for gerontology students will be offered.
  o Barbara Grant, Geriatric Social Work
  o Sarah Holland, Advocacy for Older Adults--Oregon Chapter, Alzheimer’s Association

Tuesday, April 8
• Graduate School Options, 1 to 2:30 p.m., Columbia Room, Werner University Center
  Panel presentation focusing on graduate school options in social work (Portland State University), occupational therapy (Pacific University), gerontology (Oregon State University), and rehabilitation counseling (Western Oregon University).

Wednesday, April 9
• Community College Meeting, 1 to 2 p.m., Columbia Room, Werner University Center
  Community college students from Chemeketa, Linn-Benton, and Portland Community College are invited to attend this presentation on the Gerontology major and opportunities for involvement at WOU.

  • WOU-GSA-Hosted Social, 2 to 3 p.m., Columbia Room, Werner University Center
    Come learn about our Gerontology Club and Honor Society! We will continue a tradition of playing What’s My Line in Gerontology and other activities for current, prospective club members, gerontology majors, and community college students. Refreshments will be provided.

  • Careers in Gerontology, 3 to 4 p.m., Columbia Room, Werner University Center
    This collaborative workshop will feature Adry Clark from the Service Learning and Career Development Center and Dr. Margaret Manoogian, former career center director and presently Associate Professor of Gerontology.

Thursday, April 10
• Networking Event for Gerontology Students, 2 to 3 p.m., Hamersly Library 107
  Students will have the opportunity to meet experienced professionals who work with older adults in an informal setting. These professionals represent long-term care, non-profits focusing on older adults, memory care facilities, and other settings.

Refreshments will be provided.

Sponsored by the WOU Gerontology Club and WOU Gerontology Department.
