

SERVICES FOR STUDENT SUCCESS

WOU offers many services to students to help ensure academic success. WOU students pay for these services in their tuition and fees, so there is generally no additional fee for using these services. Students are encouraged to take advantage of all these services.

Academic Advising & Learning Center (Tutoring) (Academic Programs and Support Center, Room 401, 503-838-8428)

See an adviser in the Academic Advising Office (or your faculty adviser) for information about LACC requirements, course selection and help in making wise and responsible academic decisions. The Learning Center provides academic tutoring and also helps students acquire and maintain the skills necessary to become successful college students.

Office of Disability Services (Academic Programs and Support Center, Room 405, 503-838-8250 V/TTY)

The Office of Disability Services provides reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities. Some of the common accommodations provided include but are not limited to: note takers, books in alternative formats, extended testing time and sign language interpreters.

Student Enrichment Program (SEP) (Academic Programs and Support Center, Room 201, 503-838-8550)

If you are currently a participant in this federal program, SEP can assist you in overcoming academic, personal, financial, social and cultural barriers by offering support services. If you are not a participant, you can contact their office to see if you meet the criteria to participate.

Writing Center (Academic Programs and Support Center, Room 301, 503-838-8286)

This area helps writers at all stages of writing a paper, from getting started to fine-tuning a conclusion. Writing tutors can clarify punctuation rules, discuss paragraph development or suggest different ways of organizing a paper. The Writing Center also provides handouts and coaching on citing sources in your paper and in your bibliography.

Multicultural Student Services and Programs (Werner University Center, Room 212, 503-838-8737)

The Office of Multicultural Student Services & Programs is committed to providing outstanding educational opportunities and programs to enhance the retention of ethnic and culturally diverse students. MSSP strives to foster a supportive environment for students to live, learn and grow as active members of the WOU community and as individuals. MSSP provides several services to students including the Diversity Scholars program and the On Track program whose mission is to provide 1st generation, underrepresented college students a support program that will assist in ensuring academic and personal success at WOU. For more information about this and other programs, please visit their website at www.wou.edu/mssp.

Student Health and Counseling Center (503-838-8313)

All regularly enrolled students who register for 6 or more credit hours fall, winter or spring term are eligible to receive free general health exams from a health care provider and/or health educator consultations at the Student Health Center. The Counseling Center offers a variety of individual and group counseling services for stress management, skills for improving relationships and assistance in dealing with crisis, personal loss or depression.
