

The ESOL Graduate Program Endorsement

Western Oregon University's ESOL Education program prepares teachers to ensure that students succeed in all aspects of their schooling: academics, socialization, linguistic development, acculturation, and physical and emotional health. The program leads to an add-on endorsement to an Oregon teaching license. Students may complete the ESOL program by itself or in conjunction with an undergraduate or graduate degree program.

Admission to the program

- Applicants must have been admitted to WOU. Admissions information can be obtained by contacting the WOU Admissions Office at 503-838-8211.
- All students must meet in person with their ESOL advisor to complete and sign a program contract. Graduate students must file a copy of their contracts with the WOU Graduate Office.

ESOL Graduate Endorsement Program at Western Oregon University: Graduate Program Description

The following courses are the core curriculum of 18 hours and are applicable to the ESOL endorsement.

ED 581 Introduction to ESOL and Bilingual Education (3 cr.)

This course provides an introduction to the field of ESOL and bilingual education. In addition to offering an overview of the principles of second language acquisition, this course explores classroom practices that allow English language learners at different proficiency levels to access grade-level content while developing skills in academic and social language.

Note: Successful completion of ED 581 is strongly recommended for all other courses.

ED 682 Sociopolitical Foundations of ESOL/Bilingual Education (3 cr.)

This graduate course surveys the historical development of ESOL/bilingual education. It provides insights into government policy and legal aspects of ESOL/bilingual education as well as research, theory and classroom implications. Emphasis is placed on the philosophy of ESOL/bilingual education in a sociopolitical and cross-cultural context. Projects encourage participants to become reflective practitioners, as they critique and analyze their own beliefs and teaching practices, and plan their professional growth.

ED 683 Fostering Cultural and Community Connections in the ESOL/Bilingual Classroom (3 cr.)

This graduate course explores the concept of culture and its manifestation in society, the community and the classroom. It examines the research literature and it provides a theoretical foundation for understanding how cultural groups and students' identities affect the educational process and the classroom climate. Strategies to maximize learning using cultural and community resources, as well as to build partnerships with families, are addressed. Projects encourage participants to become reflective practitioners, as they critique and analyze their own beliefs and teaching practices, and plan their professional growth.

ED 684 Language Acquisition and Educational Linguistics in the ESOL/Bilingual Classroom (3 cr.)

This graduate course explores current theory and research in first and second language acquisition and issues in linguistics applied to ESOL/bilingual education. Topics in language acquisition include historical and current theories, developmental stages, as well as the factors that influence learning an additional language. Topics in educational linguistics include concepts in phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics and pragmatics, with a focus on classroom applications. Projects encourage participants to become reflective practitioners, as they critique and analyze their own beliefs and teaching practices, and plan their professional growth.

ED 691 Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment Strategies for English Language Learners (3 cr.)

This graduate course examines current curriculum models, materials, teaching approaches and assessment techniques that maximize the academic achievement of English language learners. It emphasizes strategies related to planning, implementing, and managing instruction that enable students in different proficiency levels to access the core curriculum and develop language skills. Projects encourage participants to become reflective practitioners, as they critique and analyze their own beliefs and teaching practices, and plan their professional growth.

ED 692 English Language Development for ESOL and Bilingual Settings (3)

Focuses on theory, methods and strategies for teaching English Language Development (ELD) in ESOL and bilingual settings. Emphasizes techniques for teaching the four language skills as well as language functions, meaningful grammatical forms, and vocabulary through content-based lessons. Projects encourage participants to become reflective practitioners, as they critique and analyze their own beliefs and teaching practices, and plan their professional growth.

A pre-requisite for the ED 609 practicum is completing at least 15 credits of coursework towards the ESOL endorsement. Students must request a placement one term preceding the practicum. You are expected to have passed the ESOL ORELA-NES before the practicum.

ED 609 Practicum: ESOL/Bilingual (3 cr.)

Teachers with insufficient supervised work experience or practical experience in Bilingual or ESOL classrooms are required to complete a supervised practicum to meet the requirements for an endorsement. Teachers with sufficient experience may petition to have the practicum waived. Please go to www.wou.edu/esol for more information.

Note: These endorsement courses can be applied towards the Master of Science in Education in ESOL/Bilingual Education. Those interested in completing a master's program should consult their academic advisor.

Additional courses for the Master of Science in Education in ESOL/Bilingual Education:

ED 630 Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Students in the Schools (3 cr.)

This course focuses on the influence of linguistic and cultural diversity on the learning process and classroom dynamics. It examines how race, class and language affect students in schools, and how different schooling practices may facilitate or hinder the academic success of English language learners. Educational approaches that build academic skills while validating the home culture and encouraging parent involvement are emphasized.

ED 694 Assessment of English Language Learners (3 cr.)

This course focuses on assessing English language learners in K-12 public school programs. Assessment principles are taught in a context of language acquisition theories, pedagogical methods, cultural appropriateness, and the legal framework for English language learners in public education. Issues of equity and social justice as impacted by accountability and high stakes testing are addressed.

ED 631 Foundations of Biliteracy (3 cr.)

Explores the relationship between first and second language literacy and between oral and written language skills. Examines ESOL and biliteracy teaching strategies for differentiated proficiency levels, as well as materials, classroom organizational structures, and assessment tools. Projects encourage participants to become reflective practitioners as they analyze and critique their own beliefs and teaching practices, and plan their professional growth.

CSE 623 Teaching English Language Learners through Technology (3 cr.)

Explores a variety of online tools and looks at proven ways these tools can be used to support language development and content learning for English Language Learners. Examines how technology tools can be used in meaningful ways, to allow additional collaboration between colleagues, teacher and students, and students themselves. Includes hands-on exploration of blogs, wikis, podcasts, screencasts, social networking, online imaging, online presentation tools, and more.
