Workplace Violence – A Supervisors Guide

This training is suggested for anyone having supervisory duties or responsibilities, whether direct or indirect supervision, in the workplace. It is a continuation of the "Preventing Workplace Violence" training and gives you the opportunity to enhance your knowledge and planning in the event an act of violence may occur in your area or in your presence. It also covers the basic need for a threat management plan for your work area.