

FINANCE FOCUS

STUDENT ADVISING

Courses that can be used in a Finance focus or for free electives.
(all courses are 3 credits unless noted)

Business:

BA 305	Business Analysis and Report Writing
BA 316	Advanced Financial Management
BA 340	Business Fluctuations and Forecasting (4 credits)
BA 345	Internet and Electronic Commerce (4 credits)
BA 398	Personal Investment Analysis
BA 399*	Special Studies (1-12 credits)
BA 406*	Special Individual Studies (1-12 credits)
BA 407*	Seminar (1-12 credits)
BA 409*	Internship (1-12 credits)
BA 420	Securities Analysis
BA 424	Capital Budgeting
BA 427	Small Business Finance
BA 430	Business Taxation
BA 438	Real Estate Investment
BA 450	State and Local Government Finance
BA 478	Topics in Finance (topic changes--can retake with new topic)
BA 485	International Finance

* There is a limit of 12 total credits of any combination of open-ended course credits that can be used in the focus.

Economics:

(All Economics courses are 4 credits)

EC 315	Econometric Analysis and Report Writing
EC 319	Public Finance
EC 395	Managerial Economics
EC 440	International Trade
EC 441	International Monetary Economics
EC 450	Comparative Economic Systems
EC 451	Economic Systems in Transition
EC 480	Introduction to Mathematical Economics

Entrepreneurship:

ENT 320	Accounting & Finance for Entrepreneurs (1 credit)
ENT 330	Planning & Creating New Ventures
ENT 350	Small Business Management
ENT 460	Entrepreneurship in Action

Some courses outside of Business/Economics/Entrepreneurship offerings may be considered for a Finance focus course with the approval of your advisor. A substitution form might be required if you have already turned your degree plan in to the Registrar's Office.