

Music 209
Final Exam Study Guide

1. What did the civil rights act of 1964 forbid?
2. How many blacks were added to the voting rolls in the South due to the Voting Rights Act?
3. What did VISTA volunteers do in America?
4. What was the purpose of the Head Start Program?
5. What was the purpose of the Upward Bound program?
6. What program was formed to insure healthcare for the elderly?
7. What phrase was used to describe M. L. King's philosophy of protest?
8. Who taught Motown performers proper stage etiquette?
9. What were the four behaviors that Motown performers were to avoid to maintain a "clean" image?
10. Who taught Motown performers their choreography?
11. According to Motown, what were performers supposed to appear to be doing when they danced?
12. Who was the Motown musical director that taught the performers "stage patter"?
13. What was the nickname of the Motown rhythm section?
14. Who was known as "the hardest working man in show business"?
15. What was the famous record label in Memphis, Tenn., associated with great rhythm and blues performers?
16. Who was known as "the Godfather" of soul?
17. What was considered unusual about the STAX record label rhythm section?
18. Who was the outrageous comic associated with the Beat movement?
19. What famed Beat author wrote the "Dharma Bums"?
20. What Beat author became a heroin user and homosexual just so he could write about those experiences?
21. What were the four states of awareness preached by ex-Harvard professor Timothy Leary?
22. What was the primary goal of the organization called LEMER?
23. Name two of the ballrooms that were famous concert venues during the hippie era in San Francisco?
24. What action does the Jefferson Airplane song, "White Rabbit," encourage listeners to do?
25. What specific fashion does the song "San Francisco," by Scott McKenzie, encourage listeners to wear?
26. In performances, the Grateful Dead had a reputation for being extremely careful in setting up what piece of equipment at their concerts.
27. What Bay Area city was unofficial home to the radical Black Panthers group?

28. Did the early San Francisco rock stars live in seclusion or among "regular" people?
29. What effect did the atmosphere of Berkeley and the University of California have on San Francisco rock?
30. What type of location was home to many of the San Francisco concerts?
31. What visual effects were common to the San Francisco concerts?
32. Many San Francisco groups were accused of being sloppily prepared and uninspired in their performances. Could the same be said of the Grateful Dead not, what were the differences?
33. Were the lyrics and the sound of Creedence Clearwater Revival typical of the San Francisco scene? If not, what were the differences?
34. What rock festival shortly after Woodstock marked the end of the peace and love mentality of the late 1960's youth culture?
35. This Jamaican rock legend was an inspiration to both Eric Clapton and the Punk rock group The Clash.
36. Before becoming a rock performer he was a paratrooper in the US Army.
37. He created the fantasy rock star Ziggy Stardust and found it hard to leave this character onstage.
38. Though known both as a hard rock and a heavy metal band, this group actually performed a third of their music on acoustic instruments in the 1970s.
39. This Texas native, a major star of San Francisco Rock, took her vocal style and lyrical content from the Blues.
40. Name the three cities that were at the center of black popular music during the late 1960s and early 1970s.
41. What 1970's "funk band" incorporated science fiction and outer space themes into its stage shows?
42. Jimi Hendrix was able to achieve note bending effects by using heavy or light gauge strings?
43. Why would a "hard rock" lead guitarist avoid using an "archtop" guitar as his or her main instrument?
44. This standard guitar of rock music only plays one note at a time: What is the instrument? Why only one note at a time?
45. One sarcastic music critic of the 70s claimed that this hard rock group's music was best listened to in a narcotic trance that included: cough syrup, Novocain, marijuana, and mescaline. Name the group.
46. Considered by Led Zeppelin to be their greatest contribution to rock music, this song featured a low volume opening with acoustic guitar and then erupted into a full fledged "rocker."
47. An early inspiration to early Punk Rock, this band's lead singer, Lou Reed sang of the benefits of heroin addiction and sexual perversity.
48. In keeping with their attempts at being anti-social, punk rockers were often known to do gobbers and the pogo to incite their audiences?
49. This punk rock band's greatest hit was banned from numerous live shows and broadcasts for criticizing which British monarch?