PERFORMANCE PREPARATION:

- Professional audience development, public relations and marketing campaign, as well as assistance in media coverage in each group's individual market and hometown. Downloadable press materials will be available on the DCINY website.
- Website tools and information available to you and your performers on the DCINY website to assist in all aspects of your performance including rehearsal notes, Online Director's Conferences, Message Board, advance ticket sales, and other concert related resources.
- Where applicable, rehearsal visit and concert preparation assistance.

REGISTRATION DETAILS and TRAVEL:

- An ensemble needs a minimum of 10 performers in order to register for a performance and to receive all benefits of the package.
- With every twenty performer registrations, there is one additional performer or VIP patron that would be complimentary.
- DCINY ensembles are welcome to make their own travel and lodging arrangements. Should you wish assistance, DCINY has made special arrangements with ACFEA Tour Consultants which is DCINY's preferred travel provider. DCINY and ACFEA are independent parties and not affiliated with each other.
- Participants who do not book through ACFEA are required to submit their confirmed itineraries to DCINY 60 days in advance of their performance (including travel arrangements, residency hotels, and any transfers). It is the responsibility of each participant to arrive in New York with adequate time prior to the first scheduled rehearsal.
- It is the responsibility of each artist to be present and on time to each scheduled event. All performers are expected to be musically prepared and to conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times. DCINY reserves the right to withdraw rehearsal and performance rights from any artist who fails these obligations and to dismiss them from their participation immediately with no refund of monies paid.
- All participants agree to adhere to and recognize all decisions made by DCINY as final relating to their performance.
