

ASWOU

The Associated Students of Western Oregon University is the legally recognized student government at WOU.

The Associated Students of Western Oregon University (ASWOU) offers various way for students to get involved and offers many opportunities to contribute to the campus and community in college.

Modeled after the United States, ASWOU is comprised of three branches; executive, legislative, and judicial.