

Faces You May Know

Faculty, Staff, and Students

For a long time, WOU Faculty, Staff, and Students have played an important roll in campus and community politics.

Current and former students have run for local political office. Ron Dodge is a current Polk County Commissioner, Paul Evans is a former Monmouth City Council member and a former Monmouth Mayor. Brian Boquist is currently a member of the Oregon House of Representatives. Peter Courtney is the current State Senate President.

Professor Ed Dover ran for Congress in 1998 as the Socialist Party nominee for the 5th Congressional District. He garnered 1,378 votes.

Professor Dean Braa ran for the United States Senate in 1998 as the Socialist Party nominee. He received 7,553 votes in his statewide campaign.

This is a bumper sticker used in the Paul Evans for Mayor Campaign.

A news article from the Statesman Journal about Ed Dover running for Congress.