The 2011-2012 Hamersly Library exhibits theme is IDENTITY. The exhibits featured this year will explore the characteristics that determine who we are. Our individual experiences, the communities we live in, and our culture all play a significant role in establishing our identity.

This fall three exhibits at the Hamersly Library, Cannon Gallery of Art (Campbell Hall) and Werner University Center Gallery will explore the uniqueness in individual identity by examining the life of Alfred P. Maurice.
