

Western Oregon University Scholarship Application 2012

This scholarship will be awarded to a student who applies to study abroad with CISabroad and demonstrates high academic achievement and an ability to represent Western Oregon University and CISabroad in a positive manner overseas. The scholarship award is $500 and will be deducted from the recipient's final program payment. In addition, recipients will be required to maintain an online blog or photo journal during their program.

Applicant Information

Name: _____

Address: _____ Zip Code: _____

Email: _____ Phone Number: _____

CISabroad Program: _____ Cumulative GPA: _____

Term: _____ Year _____

Scholarship Criteria

- Full time student or continuing part-time student in good academic standing at Western Oregon University
- Overall grade point average of 2.5
- Accepted to a CISabroad program and application deposit paid

Personal Essay

Essays must be attached to the application form. The essays should be typed, double-spaced, and one (minimum) to two (maximum) pages in length. Please address the following questions:

Why do you wish to participate in this study abroad program? What do you hope to gain academically, for future career goals, and personally from this experience? How will receiving this scholarship help in achieving these goals?

Complete scholarship applications, with unofficial transcripts attached, must be submitted to the WOU Office of Study Abroad and International Exchanges no later than Friday, April 13, 2012.

Study Abroad and International Exchanges

APSC 501

503-838-8905

studyabroad@wou.edu