Your Western I.D. card can be used as a Wolf Bonus Card at Western Deli and Wolf Grill, Wolf Express, Valsetz Food Court and Caffé Allegro. In addition to the amount that you deposit into your account, you will receive a 5% discount at the point of sale for each purchase you make. Your card will be encoded and an account will be opened. Once your account is open and your card is encoded you can use your Wolf Bonus Card. A card only needs to be encoded one time unless it becomes lost and you buy a new card.

Every restaurant will have a cash register that can read your card. Tell the cashier you have a Wolf Bonus Account and the cashier will read your card after ringing up your sale. Your remaining account balance will be displayed on the terminal. A printed receipt with your new balance is available upon request.

Your Western I.D. Card is like a debit card. Lost cards should be immediately reported to the Housing Office located in the Valsetz Dining Hall (838-8311), during normal business hours (Monday-Friday, 8am-5pm). Accounts will be invalidated upon notification. Campus Dining can stop the possible unauthorized use of a Wolf Bonus Account upon notification. A lost or damaged card can be replaced at the Werner University Center for $10.00 and Campus Dining will encode the card and create a new account number.

Additional deposits (minimum of $20.00—cash or check) can be made at the Office of University Residences and Campus Dining.

A full refund of your remaining account balance of $15.00 or more will be made to students who are officially withdrawing from Western Oregon University, or faculty and staff who terminate employment from the college. Refund requests must be submitted in writing before refunds will be granted. Refund checks will be mailed approximately thirty days after notification. Refunds will not be made for amounts less than $15.00.
