Ally 1 & 2 definitions
Ally 1
The purpose of being Ally 1 trained is to provide fundamental skills and knowledge through terminology, activities, and discussions so you can support the gay, lesbian, bisexual, trans, queer, questioning, intersex, ally, and asexual community.

Ally 2
Advanced Ally 2 training focuses on exploring the challenges and experiences of the gay, lesbian, bisexual, trans, queer, questioning, intersex, ally, and asexual people and the community with the intent of providing skills for lifelong allyship. These will be brought back to the next meeting for final approval.

Upcoming Trainings:
