Safe Zone meeting
Friday, April 27th, 2012
1pm ~ Hamersly Library 205

Safe Zone’s Sixth Birthday is Monday, April 30th. CM Hall will be speaking at 1pm in the lower lounge of the Werner Center. The social and cupcakes will be at 1:30 in the Santiam room. There will be water and lemonade from catering. The Staff Co-chair, Stephanie Anderson, will set up decorations.

The Day of Silence and Night and Noise on April 20th, held in Mt. Jefferson room of Valsetz, was very successful. There were approximately 21 people who attended the Night of Noise. For next year, there should be more advertising and be hosted somewhere other than the Mt. Jefferson room of Valsetz.

Safe Zone is doing a butter braid fundraiser. Butter Braids are frozen baked goods that are being sold for $12 a piece. Safe Zone shirts will be sold at the booth. There will be a booth doing presale from April 30th to May 4th from 11am-1pm. Pick up with be May 11th from 11am-1pm.

There will be another Burgerville Night on May 9th from 5-8pm. Volunteers were called for.

Training chair update: An Ally Training will be hosted May 9th from 10am-12:30pm. There was a discussion proposing the idea to train the Resident Assistants in the spring rather than in the Fall. A training needs to be organized.

Outreach chair update: May 11th in the Oregon Queer Youth Summit aimed at Middle schoolers to college students. Safe Zone’s Outreach Chair, Joe Hahn will be hosting a leadership workshop on successful event planning.

Intern update: The website has been updated. Instead of listed all of the trained allies right on the website, documents have been provided for people to download.
