15. _____

Step 2 – Identification

Identify the regional problem that your group has chosen.

Regional Problem: _____

Step 3 – Interdependencies, Vulnerabilities, and Protection Incentives

List the interdependencies, vulnerabilities, and protection incentives in your region.

Interdependency	Vulnerability	Protection Incentive
2.
3.
4.
5.

Step 4, Part 1 – GAP Analysis: Planning Forward by Looking Back

Assuming you could go back 18 months from today and start over, what else would you do to be prepared for your problem?

How could I improve my regional performance?

Step 4, Part 3 – GAP Analysis: Desired Responses

You have identified your problem. Now define/visualize how your problem should be addressed. Describe, (by list format), your desired operational responses for your problem.

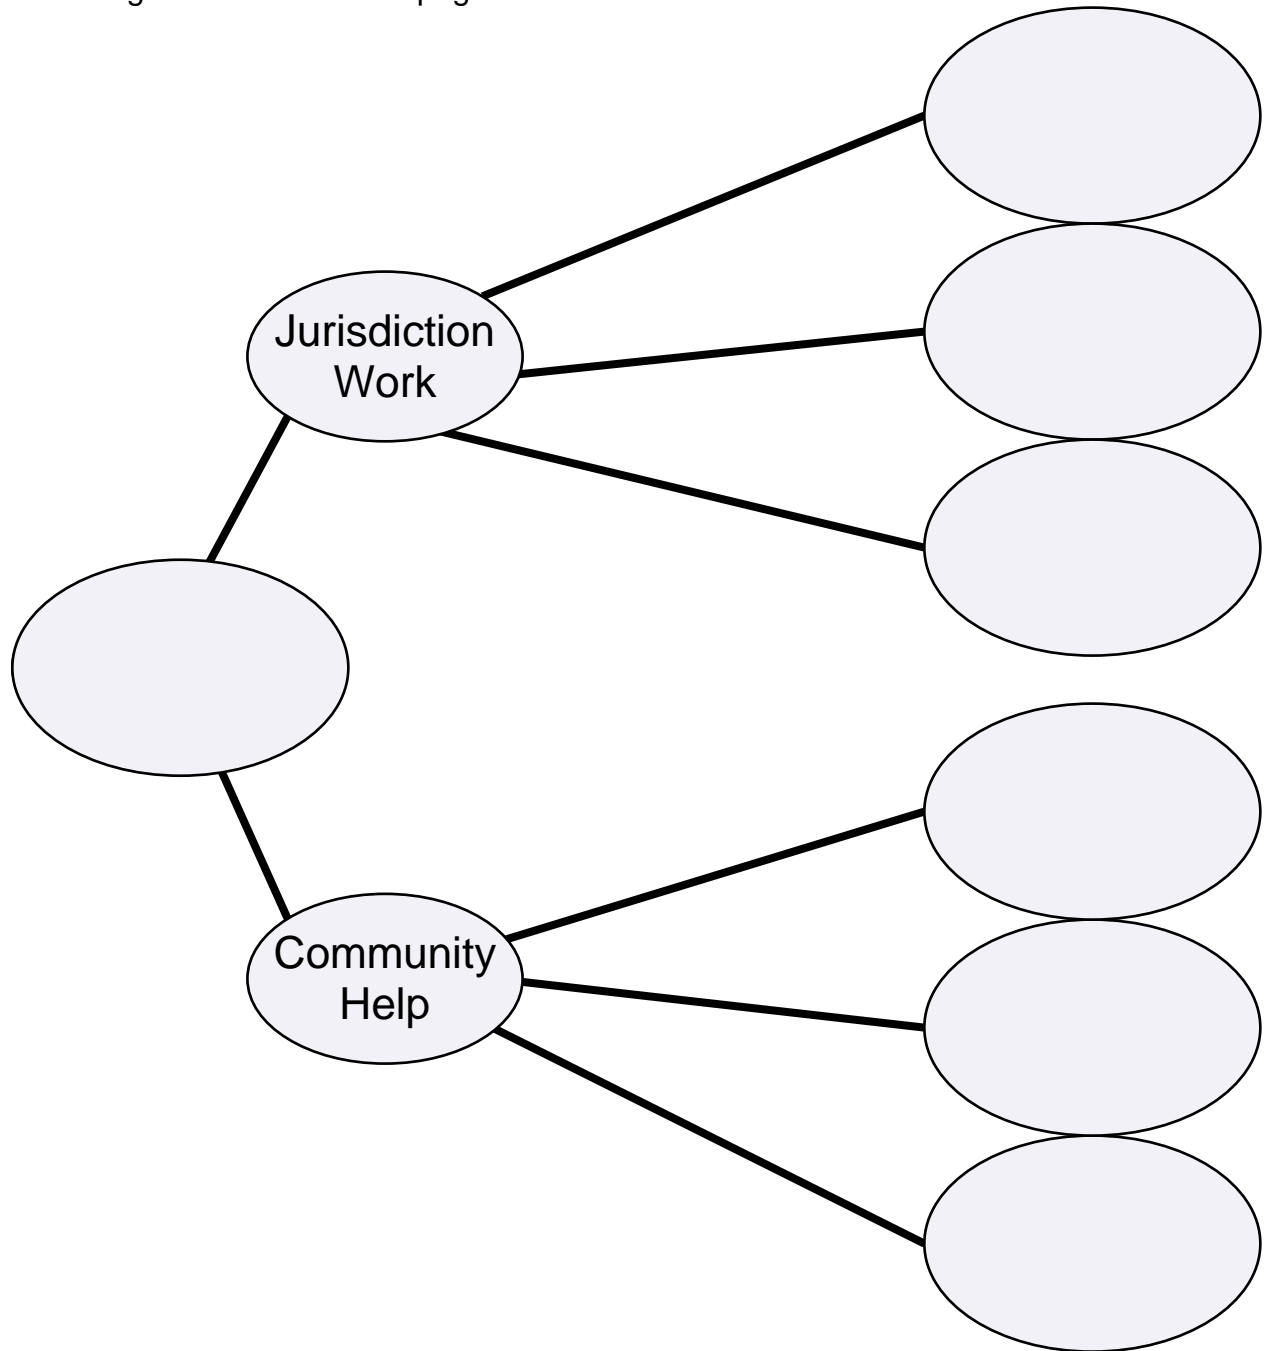

- 1. _____
- 2. _____
- 3. _____
- 4. _____
- 5. _____
- 6. _____
- 7. _____
- 8. _____
- 9. _____

Step 4, Part 4 – GAP Analysis: Actions/Tasks

Identify what specifically needs to be done” before this problem that you and your community and region must do for you to achieve your desired responses (concept of operations) for this problem. Follow the directions at the top of the following pages, Pages 5, 6, and 7.

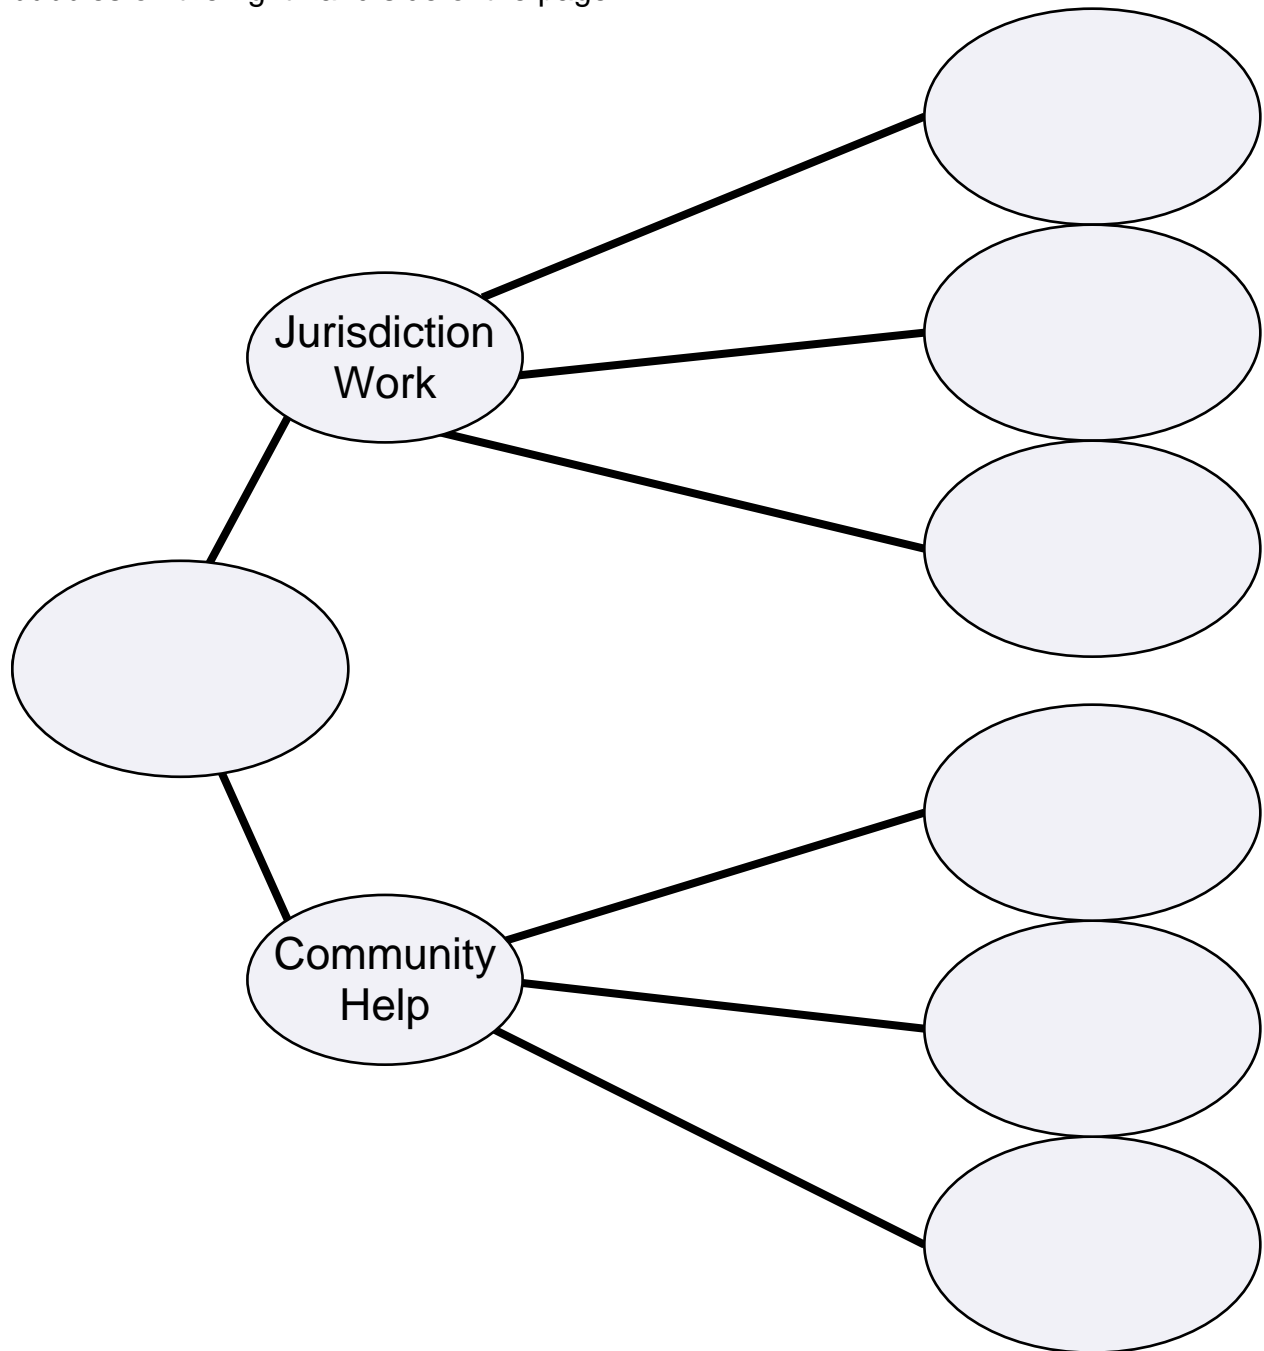

Community Partnerships

Fill in the desired response involving Community Partnerships in the bubble on the left hand side of the page. Record six needs for the desired response in the bubbles on the right hand side of the page.

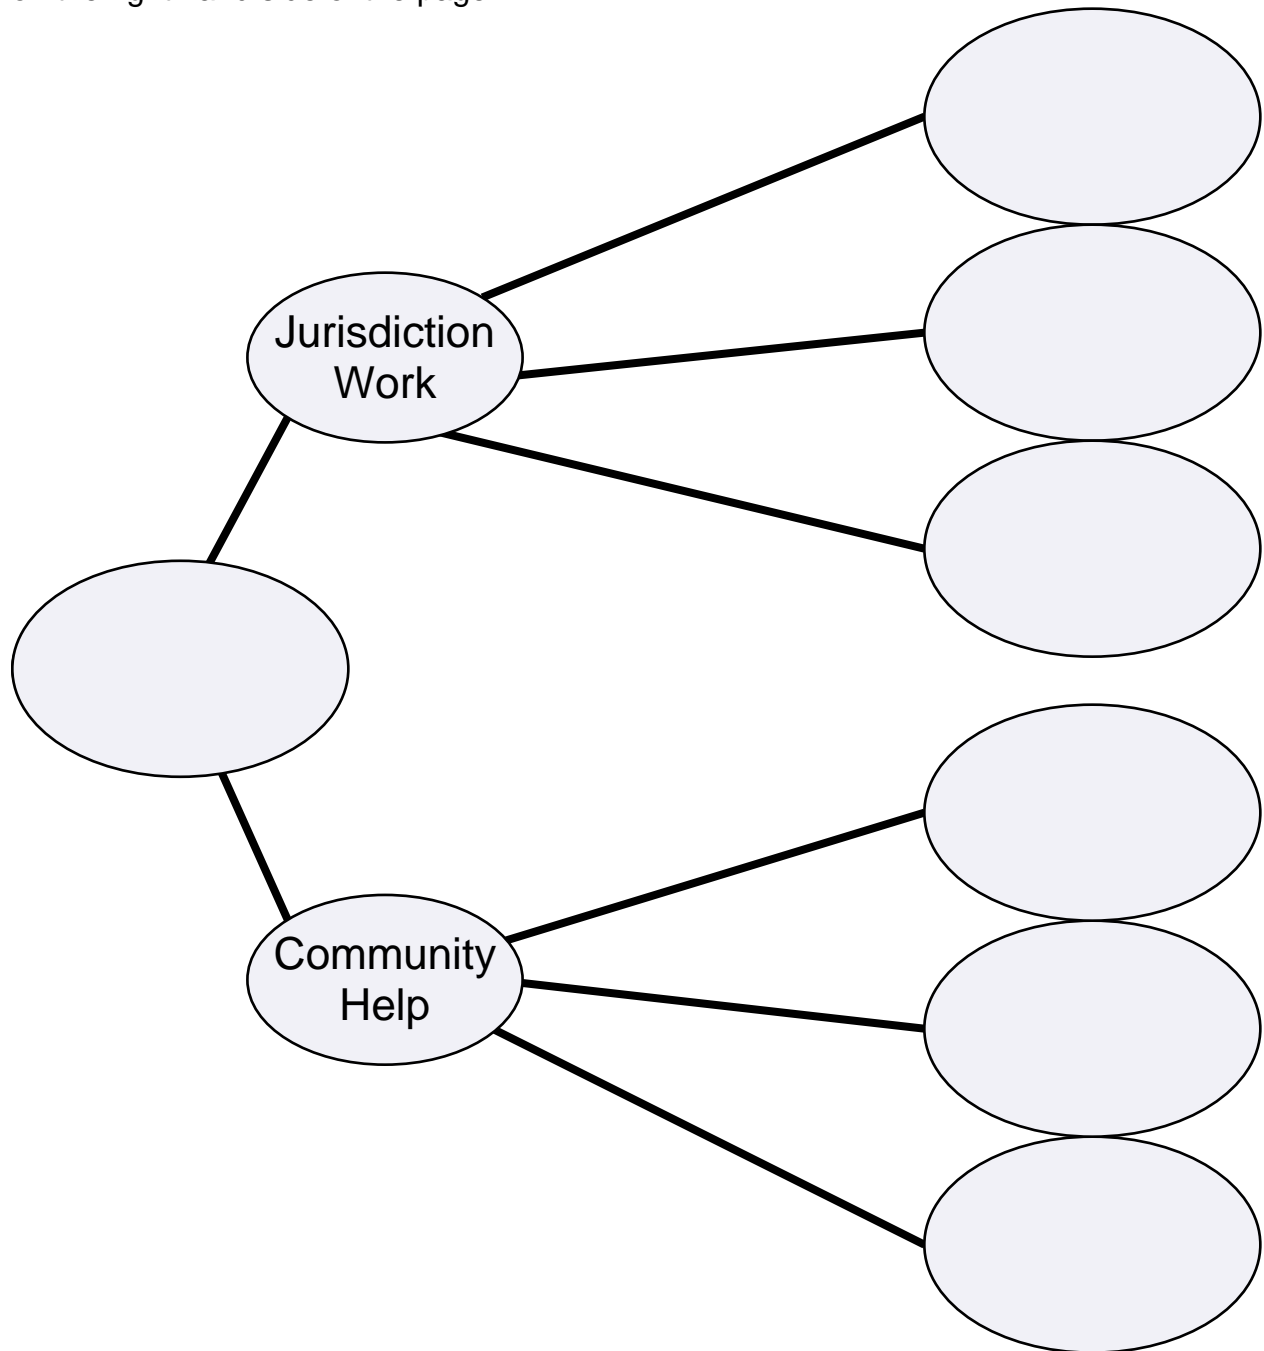

Infrastructure Partnerships

Fill in the desired response involving Infrastructure Partnerships in the bubble on the left hand side of the page. Record six needs for the desired response in the bubbles on the right hand side of the page.

Individual Preparedness

Fill in the desired response involving Individual Preparedness in the bubble on the left hand side of the page. Record six needs for the desired response in the bubbles on the right hand side of the page.

Step 4, Part 5 – GAP Analysis: Needs Rating

Building off the needs listed on Pages 5, 6, and 7, using a scale of 0-5 (0 being none and 5 being high), rate the “Need” your jurisdiction has for this activity in the problem and your community’s actual capacity to do the work for each need.

Community Partnerships

Need	Jurisdictional Activity 0-5	Community’s Capacity 0-5

17
18

Step 4, Part 6 – GAP Analysis: Plotting

Building off the needs listed on Pages 5, 6, and 7, using a scale of 0-5 (0 being none and 5 being high), rate the “Need” your jurisdiction has for this activity in the problem and your community’s actual capacity to do the work for each need.

Step 5 – Rating your Community

Please rate your region’s vigilance, preparedness, and resiliency based on a scale of 1-5 as it relates to your problem (1 being low and 5 being high).

	1	2	3	4	5
Vigilance
Preparedness
Resiliency

Step 6 – Stakeholders

Identify stakeholders from your region that are affected by your problem and the guardians/management of these stakeholders.

Victims	Suspects	Locations
Third Party Stakeholders Guardians/Management of Victims, Suspects, & Stakeholders

Step 7 – Mission Statement

Develop a mission statement that includes your group’s purpose and overall goal in working to resolve the previously identified problem. (Record your final mission statement at the top of the first page of the Participant Worksheet)

Step 8 – Timelines

Identify timelines for your problem including goals and objectives for both Tribal and non-Tribal stakeholders.

Goals and Objectives Timeline
Objective:
Outcome:
Strategies	Resources/Partnerships
Date Due:	Responsibility:

Step 9 – Pitfalls

Identify the pitfalls you will encounter during the process of addressing your problem with the group.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
